SPECIAL NOTICE

Many of the foreign gold and silver pieces offered in this catalogue are rare and seldom obtainable. If you are seriously interested in any of the lots and are uncertain as to what would be reasonable bids, do not hesitate to send for estimates. Our experience permits us to form a fairly accurate idea as to what each lot will bring although the estimate we give is by no means a reserve value. The lot may bring more or less.

The cost of printing is high and lots in this catalogue have been arranged so that none of them will be worth less than 50 cents. Bids below that amount will not be accepted. All bids below face or bullion value will be discarded as will bids involving odd and fractional amounts such as 76½c, 99c et cetera. Bid even amounts, 75 cents or $1.00.

The Coin Market Today

During the last decade certain series of United States coins have greatly appreciated in value. This increase has not been caused by coin dealers, as is often supposed, but by collectors who are willing to pay higher premiums for coins they want. The demand is such that even dealers are offering to pay from 50 to 100% of Catalogue value for certain pieces. And they use expensive advertising to inform collectors of their needs.

We mention this state of affairs by way of explanation to bidders who have been unsuccessful in recent sales. Those who have failed to follow recent price trends cannot hope to compete successfully in the present day market.

The most reliable guide to the values of United States coins is the Standard Catalogue of United States Coins and Tokens, published yearly by Wayte Raymond of New York City. There will be no issue of this catalogue in 1943. Instead, Mr. Raymond has issued a 1943 Supplement showing the recent changes in value of the most popular United States coins. This Supplement is invaluable to the collector who is seriously interested in adding to his coin collection. It is obtainable from us for 25 Cents, post free. We can also supply copies of the Standard Catalogue of United States Coins and Tokens at the following cost:

| | |
|---|---|
| 1942 Edition. Large octavo, cloth. 242 pp. over 1000 illustrations and an index | $2.50 |
| 1941 Edition | 1.50 |
| 1940 Edition | 1.00 |

The 1943 Supplement will be included with any edition without charge. Postage additional. Shipping weight about 2 lbs.
